

Standing Camp Gear List

Recommended Only

- Rucksack or strong duffel bag - ideally everything fits in (prefer not a rigid suitcase)
- Sleeping mat (a closed cell foam mattress is the minimum requirement to stop cold rising up through to the sleeping bag) (prefer not the large Air Mattresses)
- Sleeping Bag
- Inner sheet (this stops the sleeping bag from getting dirty and keeps you warmer)
- Pillow (OPTIONAL EXTRA: Teddy)
- Pyjamas
- Mess bag (CONTAINING: unbreakable plate, bowl, Mug, knife, fork, spoon, tea towel)
- Toiletry bag
- First Aid Kit (CONTAINING: bandaids, Panadol / disprin, betadine swabs, tweezers, scissors, safety pins, triangular bandage, whistle, gauze (stretchy) bandage)
- Towel
- Bathers
- Strong shoes or sneakers (no thongs or sandals) and an old pair for getting wet or muddy
- Socks, underwear (2 changes of each)
- Handkerchiefs
- T-shirts (3)
- Shorts (1)
- Long pants (1)
- Warm jumper (PREFERABLY: polar fleece or wool, as they stay warm even when wet)
- Rain jacket
- Beanie (to wear at night)
- Green scout book and Scarf
- Daypack or bum bag (if you have one) enough to carry lunch, water bottle, and raincoat.
- Water bottles (full – enough to carry 1 litre)
- Torch (WITH: 1 set of spare batteries), Camera (optional)
- Broad brimmed hat and sunscreen

Note: Scout camps are an environment where teamwork, communication, sharing and contributing are encouraged. Scouts should not need to bring any private food (including lollies), electronic devices (phones, DS, ipods) or money unless specifically arranged with Scout Leader.
